and what have you

It seems from visiting around town that the new sales tax is being accepted better than most people expected. There doesn't seem to be too much confusion in the stores for such a major change and the customers are showing a great deal of patience with the clerks. Most of the troubles with the tax will be in book-keeping departments until more information is made available for the state.

It seems to be common practice everywhere to divide coffee checks around so that the tax can be avoided—more for the fun of it than anything else.

It is hoped that a large following will be on hand in Seagraves Friday night to cheer the Pipers on to their second victory. There wasn't enough people interested in going by bus to charter one for the trip.

Received a letter this week from A. J. French, tax assessor-collector, making note of the fact that the new license plate required for farm trailers with a gross weight of 4,000 to 10,000 pounds must be on by September 15.

This bill was to have been enforced back in May but was delayed so that the necessary plates and supplies would be ready. This is to be the final extension.

Home accidents, like other accidents, are fundamentally the result of inadequate knowledge, insufficient skill and faulty attitudes.

Most of the annual four million or more deaths and injuries caused by home accidents can be prevented if we observe four rules:

1. Learn to recognize and understand the many hazards in the home.

2. Develop a sense of responsibility toward safeguarding ourselves and others against the possibility of home accidents.

3. Acquire the skills required to perform household tasks safely.

4. Acquire safe, orderly habits in all of our activities at home.

Let us insure our own safety and the safety of our families and friends by observing these four simple rules of home safety.

CORN GROWS TALL IN HAMLIN—The Rev. Sam J. King, retired Nazarene minister, has proof that Hamlin can still have good crops with the right amount of moisture. Rev. Mr. King had corn growing in his garden well over six feet tall on his place just outside the city limits south of town. In addition to the corn there was an abundance of other vegetables in what he called "the best garden I have ever had in my life." He was assisted in his gardening by his grandson, Gerald Barnett, 13, who spent the summer here.

PIPERS JOURNEY TO SEAGRAVES FRIDAY NIGHT FOR SECOND WIN

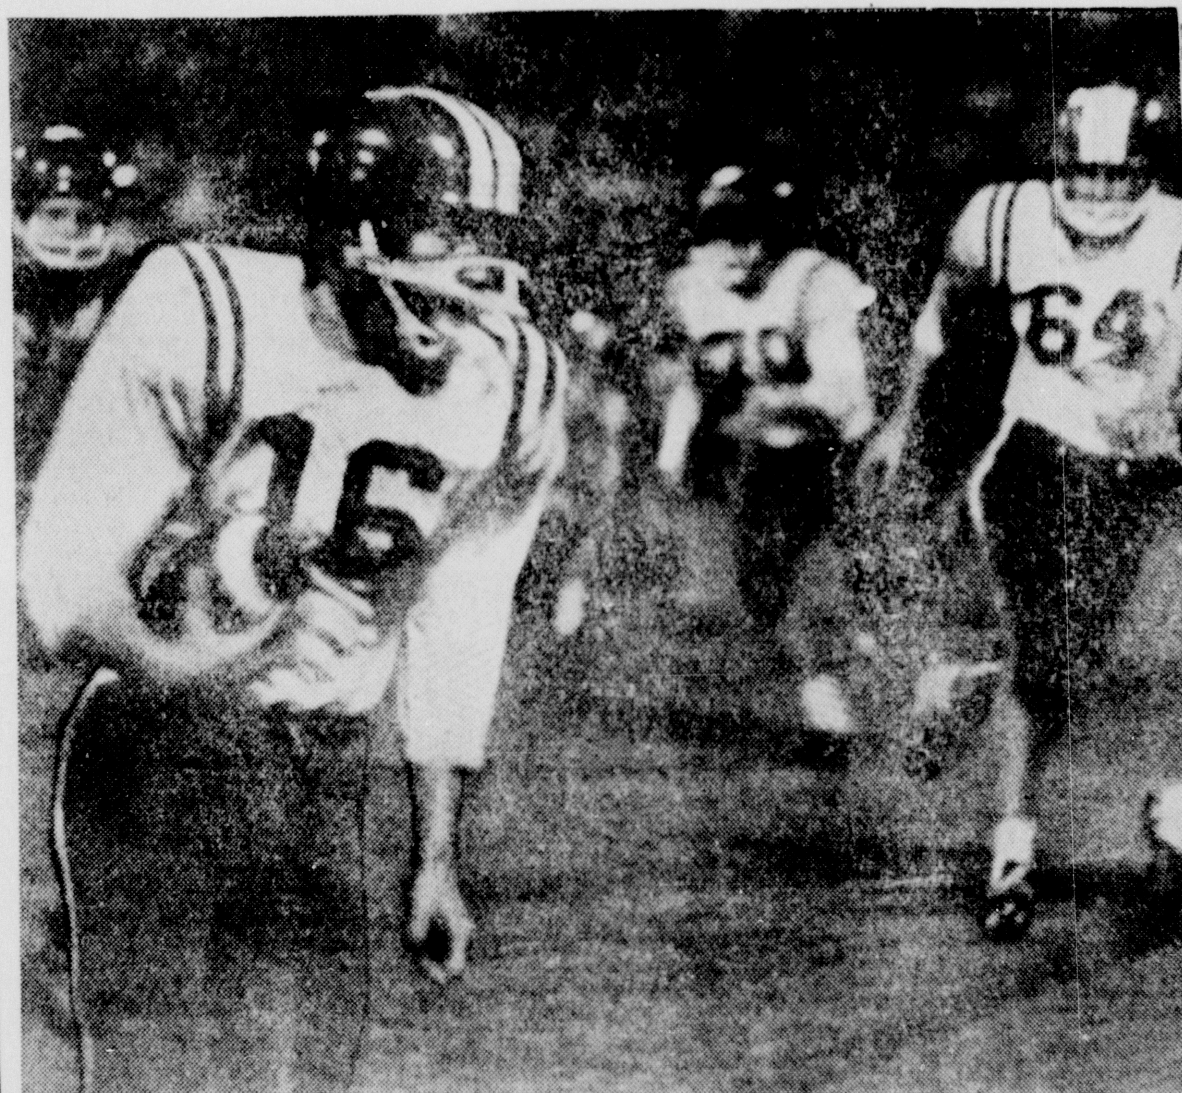

D. C. Andrews and the Piper coaching staff know very little about Seagraves, the Piper's opponent this Friday night.

About all that is known is that they have a big 205-215 pound fullback and a big strong tackle. They run from the Wing T formation and are ranked number seven in the state among class A clubs.

Seagraves was open this past week and the coaches have not had a chance to scout them. They finished the season last year with a 9-0-1 record.

Game time for the non-conference game is 7:32 p.m. No tickets will be available here for the game but can be purchased at the game.

Word here is that the best way to Seagraves is to go from here to Snyder, to Lamesa and then to Seagraves. Take State highway 137 out of Lamesa to Welch and then State 83 into Seagraves.

DRAWS FIRST BLOOD—Hallback Van Newberry races for the goal-line for the first of five Piper touchdowns Friday night against the Cisco Lobos. Newberry scampered 22 yards to score with only a minute and five seconds gone in the game. The score was set up when Cisco fumbled the opening kick-off on their 24 yard line. 40 Years Ago-

From the editor's column:

It is now a practical certainty that a meeting will be held in Washington sometime in November for the purpose of discussing international disarmament and certain far eastern affairs. This meeting will be attended by officials of the governments of the United States, England, France, Italy, Belgium, China and others. There is a possibility that German delegates may be present. The conference may result in great and everlasting good to the world or it may end in a farce. That is yet to be determined. In the meantime there are many newspapers in this country that will be editorially discussing the various phases of these subjects with a view to swaying public opinion to their way of thinking and especially the throwing of light upon the more or less obscure points. There are others that will have for their secret aim the embarrassment of the president just at a time when he should receive the support of the American people in this laudable undertaking of his. It is difficult for any president to make good on an international project of this magnitude when he is being pulled back by his own people. Don't heckle the president.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER COMES OUT WITH FOUL-PROOF METHOD TO FINALLY UNITE ALL OF MANKIND

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 takes a fanciful flight this week but lands back on the ground.

Dear editor: A bunch of us was sitting around talking about the terrible world situation—it's a funny thing, I never have been able to understand why the leaders of this country can't solve these big problems when there are plenty of people practically everywhere who can tell them exactly how to do it, although I'll admit some of them have a little trouble handling their own problems at home, especially the financial ones—and one man said he didn't believe there is any solution to the international situation.

"If it's not Cuba, it's Berlin, and tomorrow or the day after there'll be something else. I can't see anything but turmoil and crisis ahead for this world for a long time to come," he said. "In fact," he added, "I don't think there is a solution, and there probably never will be."

I came home and got to thinking about this and after thinking through four naps and three or four working days I have finally hit on a solution. I have figured out a way for man to live with man and stop all this turmoil and nation-against-nation warfare.

The thing to do is to keep exploring space, don't just stop with the moon, keep going, to Venus, Mars, etc., and still keep going until one day amid the billions of planets I understand are out in space somebody from the earth may run into a planet that's inhabited by people.

Now when he does, if he's smart, he'll make these people mad. Scorch them with the tail from his rocket's jet-blast, turn some mosquitoes and flies loose on them, spread the common cold among them, drop them some television sets, give them the recipe for instant mashed potatoes, anything to make them boiling mad, then high-tail it for home.

Naturally, these people on this strange planet will declare war on the earth, and not have noted. Record shows Corpus Christi, 11; Galveston, 9; Houston, 7; Victoria, 7; San Antonio, 7; Austin, 2; Waco, 1.

Two deaths due to bubonic plague were reported in a neighboring state during June and July. No cases have been reported in Texas since 1920, although State Health Department says the disease is widespread among extreme Texas prairie dogs, mice, etc.

State's red ink amounts to $72,000,000, according to State Treasurer Jesse James. Impact of resumed school payments will be offset somewhat by new sales taxes.

UT Ex-Students' Association will honor U. S. Navy Secretary John B. Connally with distinguished alumnus award in November.

Sharp decline in gambling stamps issued by the Federal government in Texas has been ever heard of the United States or Cuba or Russia or Democrats, Republicans, Scandinavia or East Berlin Socialists or Communists, will start fighting everybody, helter-skelter, and the only thing for us to do will be to unite and start fighting back. This positively will unite the world, and while it won't eliminate fighting, it'll eliminate fighting among ourselves. If you think this plan has any merit, you think more of it than I do. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Pipers Maul Cisco, 30-6

Displaying ground gaining power in the backfield behind vicious line play and bone crushing defensive play, the Pipers opened the football season here Friday night with a bang by crushing the Cisco Lobos, 30-6.

Fine defensive play by the Pipers who were led by line-backer Jerry Duncan curtailed the Lobos to 85 yards on the ground and 37 in the air. With sharp line blocking and strong downfield blocking the covey of Piper backs racked up 280 yards on the ground plus additional long yardage on punt returns.

Fullback Frankie Lee led the backs with 121 yards in 18 carries for an average of 6.7 yards per carry. He was followed by halfback Van Newberry with 59 yards in 8 carries for 7.4 yards per try. Other Piper backs and their carries were: Stanley Austin, 11 for 55, 5.0 yard average; Dan Newberry, 7 for 18, 2.5 yard average; Rayford Williams, 3 for 20, 6.7 yard average.

The Pipers took advantage of a Cisco fumble on the opening kickoff, which was recovered by tackle Randy Brown, to score in the first minute and five seconds of the ball game. Taking over on the Lobo 24, Van Newberry carried for two yards and then circled his right end for a 22 yard scamper to score standing up. Lee's try for the two points was short and the Pipers led, 6-0.

End Jimmy Cooper returned a Lobo punt 35 yards to set up the second Hamlin score in the first quarter. Cooper returned the punt to the Lobo 49 from where Dan Newberry was stopped for no gain, Austin skirted his right end for 25 yards, Lee hit the middle for seven and Dan Newberry picked up a first down on the Lobo 14 on a three yard dive. Lee was set back to the 15 from where Dan Newberry carried to the ten and then Lee went to the right for 10 yards and the TD. Austin's pass try for the two points failed and the Pipers led 12-0.

On the first play of the second quarter, Austin returned a Lobo punt for 68 yards to the Cisco 17 on a beautiful run down his left side of the field behind good blocking. From the 17 Lee hit the right side for seven yards and then Austin hit the middle for three and a first down. Williams went over his right tackle for three, Dan Newberry hit the left tackle hole for two and Lee

After the second half kickoff the Pipers drove down to the Cisco 27 from where Lobo guard Carson Snow picked off Austin's pitch back and raced 71 yards before being caught from behind by Van Newberry on the Piper five yard line. Halfback Danny Phipps carried over from the five to give the Lobos their only score. The try for the two points failed and Hamlin led, 18-6.

Taking the kickoff on their 28 the Pipers powered their way 71 yards in 16 plays for their next score. Lee counted for 39 yards in six carries and scored on a three yard plunge over right guard. His try for the extra two points failed and the Pipers led 24-6.

Midway in the final quarter, Bill Richie intercepted a Lobo pass but a 15 yard clipping penalty put the Pipers back on their 21 yard line. Lee carried five times for 37 yards, Austin five for 22 yards and Williams twice for 17 yards to score the final touchdown of the game. Williams did the honors on a 11 yard run around his left end. Cooper's try for the point after was low and to the right and the final score was Hamlin 30 and Cisco 6.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD

The Worm King has produced the king of all worms!

Yes! Bill Norton, president of Sportsman's Products of Marion, Indiana, now has come up with the whopper of all whoppers. Bill's firm is the originator and the leading manufacturer of fishing worms. And this is the latest addition to the "Catch-Em-Quick" line of fishing lures.

Bill calls it the "Texas Worm." Naturally the title makes Alaska wriggle with envy.

A truly Texas-size worm it is too, for this big wriggler is 18-inch long. It is rigged with three man-size 9/0 hooks linked with 90-pound, monofilament line. It's the world's biggest and fattest plastic worm.

A fellow would have to be a big thinker to dream up one this size. But Bill Norton is a big thinker, else he wouldn't have sold six million worms last year.

Bill decided to make just one of the Texas-size worms as a gimmick, for a merchandise display. He probably thought of it merely as a joke. But what most people don't know is that Bill's business started from a joke.

He got his plastic fishing worm idea from the wartime trick of dropping an imitation worm into someone's drink.

He's been laughing ever since then as he watched his invention... the artificial fishing worm... develop into the leading fishing lure in the nation.

But back to the Texas worm. Bill only wanted to make one... just one. However his dealers wouldn't let him stop there. Each wanted one. Then as people saw the dealer's Texas-size red-worm they wanted one of their own. Now Bill has resigned himself to accepting success with another joke.

It's interesting to note that Bill Norton couldn't even give away his first batch of fishing worms. And no dealer wanted to take the risk of losing money on such an unproven venture. But with fishermen there isn't anything so bad in the way of a lure that they won't try one out if offered to them. Fishermen will try anything once.

So Bill gave his worms away at first. Well, you must know the rest. All it takes to get fishermen scrambling for a new lure is see a whopper landed on it. And believe you me the whoppers started taking the Catch-Em-Quick" lure right from the beginning.

So, from such a humble start Norton's lures emerged from the bottom of the lake to the top of the sales chart. In some areas they were in such demand that dealers "black marketed" them to preferred customers for as much as $2.50 per worm.

Today the plastic worm is available everywhere. It is one of the most inexpensive of all lures available. Now the giant worm looms upon us. And it's beginning to take over the country.

Although Bill doesn't pretend that the giant Texas worm is for fishing purposes (it being designed as a conversation piece, primarily, or a rumpus room wall decoration) he says he has had reports from Gulf Coast fishermen claiming success with it in salt water.

Who knows—it may be the next big attraction on the Gulf.

Anyway no one can say that "Catch - Em - Quick" lures haven't caught on quick.

Kings Go For Bingos

Just the other day four of us flew down to Freeport for an overnight stop and a day of fishing for Kings. Although the water was a bit rough the fishing was good. What fascinated us most, however, was the way the Kings hit the Bingo baits which Doug English had so thoughtfully furnished Raymond Muchowich for use on his Party Boats.

We used the Bingo baits on eight pound line on Ambassador reels—and brother did we have a ball! These 10-pound Kings bent that light-weight Garcia rod almost double.

Naturally you had to use a long steel leader to keep the King from snapping the line immediately—but if you handled the fish right you could get him in close enough for gaffing. Sometimes it took a ten or fifteen minute battle. But who's to deny that that isn't the biggest fun of fishing?

So if you're going to the Gulf take along some King Bingos and you'll have the time of your life. They are a Mullet-type of lure, as opposed to the broader, Perch-type.

Another favorite is Lucky-U. It is more of a Perch-type lure, not so lanky, and with a more rounded nose.

Doug is doing a lot of experimenting with artificials on the Gulf Coast and fishermen seem to be racking them in with these new baits.

Advantage of course is that you save time in baiting a hook and you don't have to take live bait or cut bait with you when you go out.

If you make your trips in the middle of the week, or the fore-part, you'll have less competition. Week-ends are when the crowds jam the Gulf coast fishing spots.

You'll find the best weather then, too—because any fisherman can tell you that it always rains on week-ends.

Whenever you go, we urge you to take along your lighter gear. We did some bait fishing, but we must admit we got our greatest enjoyment out of using light-weight gear and artificial lures.

HD Agent Gives Demonstration On Thrifty Meals

"Meat for Thrifty Meals" was the demonstration conducted for food leaders of the Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs, by Shirlee Smith Jr., assistant agent in training in Jones County, and Mary Y. Newberry, Jones County Home Demonstration Agent.

The thrifty use of a larger cut of meat was demonstrated to show how more meat meals can be provided and better distribution of meat's protein throughout the week, greater variety in meat dishes, and fresh cooked meat at each meal. Meat, which contains protein, iron, phosphorus, thiamine, riboflavin, niacin and Vitamin A, supplies a larger proportion of more of the essential food nutrients than any other article of diet. The three rules for tender or less tender cuts were discussed. Color charts of the retail cuts of meat and their location on the beef and how to cook them were discussed. The food leaders will give the demonstration back in the different clubs in Jones County. Non-club members are invited to attend.

AMATEUR GARDENERS WARNED OF SAFETY HAZARDS IN YARD

The amateur gardener is exposed to many hazards and must exercise constant care when using yard tools and equipment, Lone Star Gas Company Manager Lester Minton cautioned today.

Lone Star and The Hamlin Herald are co-sponsors of the 1961 Home Safety Program in Hamlin.

Almost 12 per cent of all home accident fatalities occur in the yard, according to a survey reported by the Kansas Board of Health and the Nassau County, N.Y., Health Department.

Of the total deaths, 5.6 per cent were caused by falls; 1.6 per cent by exposure to fire; 1.3 per cent by suffocation; and 3.1 per cent by miscellaneous causes.

Principal dangers are careless handling of rakes, hoes, and careless use of the power lawnmower. Turn hoes, rakes, etc. downward when momentarily laid aside and store properly when not in use. Observe these safety rules when operating the power mower:

1. Avoid using an electric mower when the ground is wet. You may cause a short circuit or slip on the damp grass and fall against the blades.

2. Before using, clear lawn of stones, wires, and other articles that the mower may catch and throw into the air. If an object discharged by a mower strikes you or a bystander, it may cause serious injury.

3. Be sure that children and pets are at a safe distance when you are using the mower.

4. Be sure of your footing and balance when you are operating the mower on an incline especially dangerous.

5. To push the mower over obstructions, tip it by manipulating the handle rather than by reaching under the mower.

6. Stop the engine before removing objects from reel or rotary blades.

7. Disconnect plug wires when you are working on the underside of the mower.
